VICTORY.

Another of those sectional struggles has been past, and the issues of the contest are being decided upon the battle-ration. The battle, too, has been a triumph for the Union, and the day is a great victory for the Union. The battle has been a triumph for the Union, and the day is a great victory for the Union.

WORLD'S GOLDFIRED. A remarkable change has taken place in the affairs of the world, and the result is a remarkable change in the affairs of the world. The world is now a place of peace, and the people are now living in a world of peace.
